Whitehall, July 5.

AN humble Addreſs to His Majeſty from the Biſhop Dean and Chapter and the reſt of the Clergy of the Dioceſe of Dromore, at their annual Viſitation, held in the Cathedral Church of Dromore the 30th of May 1723, has been tranſmitted by the Lords Juſtices of Ireland to his Grace the Duke of Grafton Lord Lieutenant of that Kingdom, in order to be preſented to His Majeſty.

Hanover, July 5, N. S. The King of Pruſſia left this Place the 3d Inſtant early in the Morning, and at his Departure was ſaluted with a triple Diſcharge of the Cannon round our Ramparts. His Majeſty appeared extremely well ſatisfied with his Reception here. His Britannick Majeſty intends to ſet out from hence for Pyrmont this Day about Noon, to drink the Waters at that Place.

Pyrmont, July 8, N. S. His Majeſty arrived here the 5th Inſtant about Six in the Evening, in perfect Health, God be thanked. The next Day the Prince of Waldeck, who is Sovereign of this Place, with the young Prince his eldeſt Son, came about Noon to wait upon His Majeſty. Yeſterday His Majeſty began to drink the Waters. The Lord Viſcount Townſhend came hither the 5th, and the Lord Carteret the 6th of this Month.

Bruſſels, July 10, N. S. On the 6th Inſtant, the Marqueſs de Prie went to the Aſſembly of the States of Brabant, which is held in the Town-Houſe here. His Excellency was preceeded by 16 Footmen, and two of his Coaches, in which were his Secretaries and the Principal Officers of his Houſhold; he himſelf was in a Coach drawn by ſix Horſes, the Count of Maldeghem ſitting over againſt him; his Guard of Halbardiers in the Burgundian Livery marching on each Side the Coach and behind it. He was received at alighting from his Coach by Seven Deputies from the Body of the States, and being conducted to their Aſſembly, and placed under the Sovereign's Canopy of State, he made the following Propoſition to them by Order and in the Name of the Emperour, viz. That in Default of Heirs Male, the Succeſſion to the Dutchy of Brabant ſhould be ſettled upon the Archdutcheſſes his Imperial Majeſty's Daughters and Nieces according to their Order of Birth, as are the other Hereditary Auſtrian Dominions: And then his Excellency delivered to them a Letter on the ſame Subject from his Imperial Majeſty. The States deſired ſome Days time to deliberate on an Affair of ſuch Importance. The Marqueſs de Prie goes next Month to make the like Propoſition to the States of the Province of Flanders; but in the other Provinces, the Governours of them are commiſſioned to the ſame Purpoſe. The two firſt Members of the States of this Province gave their Conſent to the ſaid Propoſition the 8th Inſtant, but the Towns have not yet done it, more Time being required to have it paſs their Common Council and the Colleges of their Corporations.

Admiralty-Office, July 3, 1723.

The Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty finding by the Accounts which have been tranſmitted to their Office, that the Maſters of ſeveral Ships and Veſſels who have received Paſſes of the Old Form, to ſecure them from the Cruizing Ships of Algiers, have not returned them, in order to their being Cancelled, according to the Bonds entered into for their ſo doing: And their Lordſhips having likewiſe received Information, that ſome of thoſe Paſſes have been diſpoſed of to Foreigners, whereby His Majeſty's Trading Subjects may be deprived of the Benefit of ſuch Paſſes which they have hitherto enjoyed by Treaties with the Government of Algier: And His Majeſty having been pleaſed, by his Order in Council, dated the 14th Day of June 1722, to direct that Paſſes of a New Form ſhould be iſſued, and to ſettle new Regulations concerning them, the better to prevent any Abuſes for the future; Their Lordſhips do hereby give Notice, That when Application ſhall be made at their Office, or at any of the Ports of Great Britain or Ireland, or at any of His Majeſty's Foreign Governments, or Plantations, for Paſſes, it is expected that one of the Owners of ſuch Ships or Veſſels, for which Paſſes ſhall be ſo deſired, doth enter into Bond with the Maſter; or in caſe an Owner cannot poſſibly be within Reach to do the ſame, that then ſome one ſubſtantial Houſekeeper doth ſo give Bond with the Maſter, for the regular and timely Return of the Paſs; And that if the Owners, or Maſters of ſuch Ships or Veſſels, who already have, or ſhall receive Paſſes of the New Form, do not take Care for the Return thereof, according to the Tenor of the ſaid Bonds, the ſame ſhall be ſtrictly put in Execution, that ſo the Penalty may be recovered to His Majeſty.

By Command of their Lordſhips,

J. Burchett.
